Note 1 – Organization and Purpose

Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc., together with its wholly owned subsidiary (“we,” “us,” “our,” or the “Company”), is a New York-based investment advisory firm. We provide discretionary and non-discretionary portfolio management, financial planning, and fiduciary services to a broad client base. The Company also engages in proprietary trading of securities for its own account.

In June 2023, we acquired Golden Eagle Securities, Inc. (formerly First Florida Securities, Inc.), a FINRA-registered broker-dealer. Golden Eagle Securities, Inc. now operates as a wholly owned subsidiary and enhances our ability to provide private placement and capital markets advisory services to small and medium-sized enterprises. The acquisition is aligned with our strategic goal of expanding investment banking and capital-raising capabilities within the group.

Note 2 – Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary, Golden Eagle Securities, Inc. (collectively, the “Company”). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates include, but are not limited to, the valuation of investments, allowances for doubtful accounts, and the fair value of acquired assets and liabilities in business combinations. Actual results could differ materially from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when control of promised services is transferred to the customer, reflecting the consideration expected to be received in exchange. Revenue recognition follows the five-step model under ASC Topic 606, which includes identifying contracts, performance obligations, transaction price, allocation of price, and recognition as performance obligations are satisfied. The Company derives revenue from several primary sources. Interest income is recognized using the effective interest method over the life of loans and debt instruments. Dividend income is recognized when the right to receive payment is established, typically on the dividend declaration date. Revenue from contracts with customers includes asset management fees, advisory fees, financial planning fees, and other fiduciary fees, and is recognized as services are performed, either by the proportionate completion method or the completed service contract method depending on the nature of the services. Principal transactions revenue reflects realized and unrealized gains and losses from changes in fair value of investments carried at fair value, with revenue recognized upon completion of transactions and transfer of control.

Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. and Subsidiary
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Through its subsidiary, Golden Eagle Securities, Inc., a FINRA-registered broker-dealer, the Company also generates revenue from private placements and other broker-dealer activities, which are recognized at the time transactions are completed and related performance obligations are satisfied.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all cash, short-term deposits, and money market funds with original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase to be cash and cash equivalents. These cash equivalents may include investments in corporate debt, financial institution instruments, and government securities. The Company maintains the majority of its cash and cash equivalents in interest-bearing accounts at nationally recognized financial institutions.

Prepaid Expenses

Prepaid expenses are amounts paid prior to receipt of services or goods. They are amortized and recognized as expense over the period in which the related service is provided or benefit is received.

Allowance for Credit Losses

Accounts receivables are stated at invoiced amounts, net of an allowance for credit losses. The Company evaluates the collectability of its receivables on a regular basis and maintains an allowance to reflect management's estimate of probable losses. This estimate is based on various factors, including the aging of receivables, historical collection experience, specific customer credit risk, and current economic conditions.

Receivables are written off when deemed uncollectible and after all reasonable collection efforts have been made. The allowance policy was first implemented in 2024 and continues to be applied consistently during the current reporting period ended December 31, 2025. Any changes to the allowance are recognized as bad debt expense in the statement of operations.

During 2025, the Company recorded an additional allowance for doubtful accounts of $66,670.32 related to a 2021 invoice. See Note 6 for further details.

Investment in Securities

The Company's investments in securities are held by the parent company, Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. Investments in securities are classified as cash equivalents, short-term, or long-term investments based on their remaining maturities. These securities are reported at fair value, with realized and unrealized gains and losses recognized in earnings.

Short Sales

Short sales involve the sale of securities that the Company does not own at the time of sale. The securities are borrowed from a broker or other counterparty and are subject to an obligation to be repurchased and returned at a future date. Short sale positions are recorded as liabilities at fair value, representing the current market value of the securities sold short.

Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. and Subsidiary
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Changes in fair value are recognized in the consolidated statements of operations in the period in which they occur. Unrealized gains and losses resulting from changes in fair value of short positions are reported as “Unrealized gain (loss) on short positions.” Realized gains and losses are recognized when the short positions are covered (repurchased).

Income Taxes

Provision for federal, state, and local income taxes has been made by the Company in accordance with applicable tax laws. The Company files income tax returns in the United States, including federal, New York State, and New York City jurisdictions. Generally, tax authorities can examine tax returns for the prior three years. Accordingly, the Company’s tax returns for the years 2022 through 2025 remain subject to examination by the applicable tax authorities.

Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per common share is computed by dividing net earnings available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the reporting period. For the twelve months ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the weighted average number of common shares outstanding were 3,896,485 and 3,641,568 respectively.

For the twelve months ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, basic earnings per share were $0 and $0, respectively.

Note 3 – Restatement of Previously Issued Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company identified an error related to the misclassification of a $15,000 shareholder capital contribution made in 2024, which had previously been included in goodwill and was not eliminated in consolidation.

The consolidated financial statements for prior periods have been restated to correct this error. The restatement had no impact on the Company’s consolidated net income, cash position, or operating results for any of the affected periods.

No additional restatements or adjustments to previously reported amounts were identified during the year ended December 31, 2025.

Note 4 – Securities Valuation and Fair Value Measurement

The Company’s investments in securities are held solely by the parent company, Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. (GECA). These investments are measured at fair value in accordance with U.S. GAAP, which defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset in an orderly transaction between market participants.

Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. and Subsidiary
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

GECA uses a variety of methods to determine fair value. Equity securities are generally valued at the last reported sale price on the exchange where the security is traded, or, in the absence of a sale, at the most recent bid price. Fixed income securities, including U.S. Treasury corporate, and municipal bonds, are valued based on quotes from brokers, dealers, or third-party pricing services using observable market inputs or valuation models.

U.S. GAAP establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used in valuation techniques into three levels:

- Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets.
- Level 2: Observable inputs other than quoted prices, including interest rates, credit risk, and yield curves.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs, including assumptions and internal valuation models.

Reclassification of Shares to be Received and Convertible Note Investment

During the year ended December 31, 2025, GECA reclassified one of its investment from shares to be received and a convertible note to a credit receivable following the formal exercise of its Investor Put Option, which was approved by the Issuer liquidator on June 9, 2025. The reclassification was triggered by an Event of Default resulting from Issuer's failure to deliver the agreed common shares under the convertible note agreement.

Upon reclassification, the investment in securities was derecognized and a realized gain of $632,624.19 was recognized, representing the difference between the carrying amount of the investment and the fair value of the newly recognized receivable.

The credit receivable continues to be presented separately from investments in securities and is not measured at fair value under the fair value hierarchy.

The following table presents the Company's investments measured at fair value by level as of December 31, 2025:

Assets (at fair value)
Investments in securities	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Equities	$ 307,765			$ 307,765
US Treasury				$ 0
Corporate Bonds			$ 166,550	$ 166,550
Municipal Bonds				$ 0
	$ 307,765	$ 0	$ 166,550	$ 474,315

Note: The credit receivable related to the above-mentioned investment remains excluded from this table, as it is not measured at fair value

Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. and Subsidiary
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Note 5 – Short Sale Liability

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company engaged in short sale transactions of securities. Short sale liabilities were initially recorded at the fair value of the securities sold short and were subsequently remeasured at fair value at each reporting date, with unrealized gains or losses recognized in the consolidated statements of operations.

All short sale positions entered during the year were fully covered prior to year-end. Accordingly, the Company had no outstanding short sale liabilities as of December 31, 2025.

Note 6 – Goodwill

Goodwill arose from the Company's acquisition of 100% of the shares of Golden Eagle Securities, Inc. during the year ended December 31, 2023. The goodwill recorded represents the excess of the purchase price and related acquisition costs over the estimated fair value of the net tangible and intangible assets acquired.

Goodwill is not amortized but is tested for impairment at least annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset may be impaired, in accordance with FASB ASC 350, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other. An impairment loss is recognized if the carrying amount of goodwill exceeds its estimated fair value.

As of December 31, 2025, goodwill was recorded at $85,000. Management performed its annual goodwill impairment assessment and determined that the fair value of the related reporting unit exceeded its carrying amount. Accordingly, no goodwill impairment was recognized during the year ended December 31, 2025.

Note 7 – Write-Off and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

During the year ended December 31, 2025, GECA recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts of $66,670.32 related to a fees receivable, originally invoiced in 2021. The allowance was recognized as bad debt expense in the consolidated statement of operations. No receivables were written off during the year.

Management assessed the collectability of the receivable based on several factors, including the aging of the receivable, prior collection efforts, and the specific credit risk associated with the client. Despite ongoing communication, payments have not been received, and the customer's financial position has been affected by the postponement of its planned development, delaying settlement of outstanding balances.

Broader economic conditions and the extended payment delay further increased the risk of non-collection, prompting management to establish the allowance for doubtful accounts to reflect the heightened credit risk. Based on these factors, management concluded that the allowance of $66,670.32 represents a reasonable estimate of expected credit losses as of December 31, 2025.

The subsidiary, Golden Eagle Securities, Inc., did not record any doubtful accounts or write-offs during the year ended December 31, 2025. The Company will continue to monitor the receivable and adjust the allowance as necessary based on changes in the customer's financial condition or other relevant factors.

Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. and Subsidiary
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Note 8 – Management Fees

During the year ended December 31, 2025, GECA, incurred management fees totalling $498,490.50, paid to a back-office and administration services company wholly owned by its majority stockholder. These fees are included in Cost of Goods Sold in the consolidated statements of operations.

Note 9 – Loan from Stockholder

GECA has an outstanding loan from its stockholder amounting to $43,919.29 as of December 31, 2025. The loan is non-interest bearing and has no fixed repayment terms. This amount is classified under “Long-Term Loans from Shareholders” in the consolidated balance sheet.

Note 10 – Rent

The Company leases office space under two lease agreements. One lease expires in July 2027, and a new annual lease agreement expires in October 2026.

The Company’s leases do not require any contingent rental payments, impose any financial restrictions, or contain any residual value guarantees. Variable expenses generally represent the Company’s share of the landlord’s operating expenses. The Company does not have any leases classified as financing leases.

Note 11 – Operating Expenses

Twelve Months Ending December 31, 2025, compared to 2024.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, total operating expenses were $306,544.70, representing a decrease of 15.19% compared to $361,451.77 for the year ended December 31, 2024. The year-over-year changes in key expense categories are summarized below.

Acquisition and investment-related expenses decreased by 91.60% to $120.14 from $1,429.96, reflecting minimal investment activity during 2025.

Interest and bank charges decreased by 48.50% to $4,329.34 compared to $8,407.17, primarily due to lower financing costs and reduced banking transactions.

Office expenses and supplies decreased by 21.31% to $2,808.38 from $3,568.85, reflecting lower consumption of office materials and cost-saving measures implemented during the year.

Payroll and employee benefits increased by 6.82% to $61,341.44 compared to $57,424.50, mainly due to additional hiring and higher payments of bonuses and incentives.

Professional and legal fees decreased by 33.43% to $63,825.33 from $95,880.41, reflecting reduced legal, consulting, and advisory activities.

Rent expense decreased by 2.45% to $63,940.46 from $65,545.50, primarily due to minor lease adjustments.

Taxes and licenses increased by 52.31% to $19,683.82 from $12,923.62, mainly driven by higher regulatory fees, license renewals, and increased tax obligations.

Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. and Subsidiary
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Travel expenses decreased by 25.14% to $17,821.87 from $23,807.85, due to lower business travel activity.

Utilities increased by 64.53% to $5,893.76 from $3,582.23, mainly driven by higher telephone and communication expenses to support ongoing operations.

Note 12 – Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes has been calculated based on the federal corporate income tax rate of 21%, and New York State and City tax rates of 6.50%.

Note 13 – Principal Risks

In the normal course of business, the Company makes investments in financial instruments where the risk of potential loss exists due to changes in the market (market risk) or changes in interest rates (interest rate risk) and other factors. The Company also maintains its cash and cash equivalent balances in financial institutions, which at times may exceed federally insured limits (credit risk). The Company is subject to potential loss to the extent any financial institution with which it conducts business is unable to fulfill contractual obligations on its behalf.

Note 14 – Equity Incentive Plan

The Company implemented an Equity Incentive Plan in 2020 to provide stock-based compensation to certain employees, directors, consultants or other persons providing services to the company as part of its employee benefits program. The Plan allowed for the issuance of stock options and restricted shares, designed to align employee interests with those of shareholders.

Company's Board of Directors has the authority and discretion to implement an Equity Incentive Plan and to grant stock-based compensation and it may re-establish a new Equity Incentive Plan program in the near future.

The Equity Incentive Plan was active from 2020 through 2023. During this period, the Company granted awards under the Plan in accordance with its terms and conditions. The Plan was discontinued after 2023. There were no changes to the Equity Incentive Plan during the year ended 2025. The Plan remains discontinued, and no additional awards have been granted since its termination.

Note 15 – Common and Preferred Stock

Common Stock:

Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. (GECA) is authorized to issue 4,500,000,000 shares of Common Stock with a par value of $0.01 per share.

During 2025, GECA issued 254,917 shares of Common Stock as a stock dividend in accordance with a Board-approved dividend resolution.

Following this issuance, the total number of Common Stock shares issued and outstanding was 3,896,485 as of December 31, 2025.

Golden Eagle Capital Advisors, Inc. and Subsidiary
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Preferred Stock

The Company has authorized 1,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $0.01, of which 1,000,000 shares are designated as Series A Preferred. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock is without voting rights and is convertible into common stock based on one (1) share of common stock for each 1 share of Series A Preferred Stock held.

As of December 31, 2025, there were no shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued or outstanding.

Note 16 – GECA Stock Repurchase Program

GECA's board of directors approved a stock repurchase program ("the Stock Repurchase Program") to repurchase shares of the Company's common stock. Under the Stock Repurchase program, no repurchases were made during 2025.

Note 17 – Stock Dividends

During 2025, the Company issued a stock dividend of 254,917 shares, payable entirely in common stock. The issuance of the stock dividend resulted in a reduction of retained earnings and a corresponding increase in common stock at par value.

No cash was required to settle the dividend. As of December 31, 2025, all effects of the stock dividend have been recorded in the consolidated financial statements, and there were no outstanding stock dividends payable.

Note 18 – Subsequent Events

As of December 31, 2025, and through the date of issuance of these consolidated financial statements, management has evaluated subsequent events and determined that there were no material events requiring disclosure or adjustment.
